DE NOVO DECISION

Dear Ms.

Under the schedule award provisions of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA) at 5 U.S.C. 8107, the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs makes the following:

AWARD OF COMPENSATION

1. Degree and Nature of Permanent Impairment: 5% Left Arm
2. Date of Maximum Medical Improvement: 07/18/2014
3. Period of Award: 07/18/2014 to 11/04/2014
4. Number of Weeks of Compensation: 15.6 (109.2 Fraction of Day)
5. Weekly Pay: $782.81 X Compensation Rate: 75 % = $587.11
6. Effective Date of Pay Rate: 12/11/2013
7. After Cost-of-Living Adjustments, Your Weekly Compensation is: $587.11
8. Your Payment and the Period Covered: $5,451.71 from 07/18/2014 to 09/20/2014.
9. Your Continuing Payment each Four Weeks: $2,348.71

Payment of your award ends when you have been paid for the last day shown in item 3 above.

Section 8107 of the FECA and its implementing regulations set forth the number of weeks of compensation to be paid for the permanent loss or loss of use of specified members, functions and organs of the body known as permanent impairment. 20 C.F.R. 10.404; see also 20 C.F.R. Part 10. The commencement period of the schedule award is usually the date of maximum medical improvement, the date that the physical condition of the injured member has stabilized and is not expected to improve further.

The FECA, however, does not in most instances specify the manner by which the percentage loss of a member, function or organ shall be determined. To ensure consistent results and equal justice under the law, good administrative practice requires the use of uniform standards applicable to all claimants. The implementing regulations have adopted the American Medical Association, Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, as the appropriate standard for evaluating schedule losses. Currently, schedule awards are calculated using the Sixth Edition of the AMA Guides.

On August 4, 2014, you completed a Form CA-7, Claim for Compensation, requesting a schedule award. By letter dated August 12, 2014, our Office advised Dr. _____ your treating physician and you of the medical evidence needed to establish the schedule award claim.

If you have a disability (a substantially limiting physical or mental impairment), please contact our office/claims examiner for information about the kinds of help available, such as communication assistance (alternate formats or sign language interpretation), accommodations and modifications.

In response, Dr. [redacted] provided medical evidence dated September 9, 2014, that assigned a 6% impairment rating to your left upper extremity (arm) utilizing the Sixth Edition of the AMA Guidelines for his impairment rating as a result of your injury. On September 11, 2014 and again on September 18, 2014, pursuant to our Office policy, Dr. [redacted] impairment rating and the medical evidence of record was forwarded to the DMA, to review the medical reports in the record to calculate the impairment of the left upper extremity (arm) as a result of your injury.

The DMA, Dr. [redacted] noted Dr. [redacted] gave 6% impairment, but the maximum schedule award that can be given for a radial head fracture using the diagnosis-based method is 5% rather than 6%. The DMA indicated Dr. [redacted] 6% rating was likely a clerical error.

By decision dated September 26, 2014, you received a schedule award for 5% permanent partial impairment (PPI) of the left arm based upon the DMA's opinion. You were awarded compensation at the augmented rate of $\frac{3}{4}$ ths for the period July 18, 2014 to November 4, 2014.

On October 7, 2015, on your behalf your authorized representative, Mr. Paul Felser, Attorney at Law, requested an Oral hearing with the Branch of Hearings and Review regarding the September 26, 2014, decision. Mr. Felser subsequently requested the hearing be changed to a review of the written records. On May 12, 2015, based on review of the written evidence of record, the Hearings representative set aside the September 26, 2014 decision and remanded for further development.

On June 30, 2015, as instructed by the Hearings representative the medical file was referred to DMA to provide a discussion of your grade modifiers and how they applied to the net adjustment formula for the default impairment of your diagnosis class. Following completion of any further development the Office deems necessary, should issue a de novo decision on the schedule award claim. The DMA provided a discussion dated June 30, 2015, of how the grade modifiers where applied to the net adjustment formula for the default impairment, in which there was no change in the initial calculation of 5% left upper extremity (arm). A copy of the DMA's calculation, which explains his clarification, is attached. The weight of the medical evidence regarding the percentage of impairment is being given to the District Medical Advisor because he provided an explanation of how he applied the Guides to the examination findings.

If you disagree with this decision, you should carefully review the attached appeal rights, and pursue whichever avenue is appropriate to your situation.

Sincerely,

Jon Jackson
Claims Examiner

You may claim continuing compensation by submitting evidence showing that the accepted injury prevents you from performing the kind of work you were doing when injured and from earning comparable wages. Please note that compensation for disability cannot be paid for any period during which you receive retirement benefits from OPM.
